What is the WTAMU Football Camp?
The football camp is designed to improve each player’s fundamentals in speed training and football specific drills and techniques.

Mike Nesbitt returned to the WT football program in 2013 and was elevated to the interim head coach on Aug. 22. He guided the Buffs to an 11-3 record and a berth in the NCAA quarterfinals. Nesbitt’s interim tag was removed following the season on Dec. 9.

Nesbitt came back to Canyon from the University of Houston where he spent the 2012 campaign as the Cougars’ offensive coordinator. Prior to that, he was the offensive coordinator at Stephen F. Austin where he mentored one of college football’s most explosive offenses. A former Division I student-athlete (New Mexico) and NFL punter for the New Orleans Saints and Minnesota Vikings, Nesbitt has spent the majority of his collegiate coaching career crafting offensive game plans, including his one-year stint at S.F.A.

Prior to S.F.A., Nesbitt spent four years at West Texas A&M coordinating the offense in 2010 while also working with the Buffalo receivers and quarterbacks. Nesbitt’s offense averaged 529 yards per game in 2010, including 423 yards through the air. The Buffaloes ranked No. 2 nationally in total offense and No. 3 in scoring offense (42.0). West Texas A&M quarterback Taylor Harris also finished third nationally with 400 yards passing per contest, and was among the nation’s leaders with 38 touchdown passes.

“WT Football over the past few years speaks for itself. We have a great coaching staff that provides a family-like environment that will help you on-and-off the field. My experience here was one to remember, starting from the bottom as a walk-on and ending where I did. It’s a testament to these coaches. They see talent and give every person an equal shot to prove themselves.”

- Brittan Golden,
  Former WT wide receiver and current member of the Arizona Cardinals

“The West Texas A&M Football Camp provides an amazing opportunity to learn from some of the top college football coaches and players in the country. It is a great environment that will bring out the best in everyone. Go Buffs!”

- Charly Martin,
  Former WT wide receiver and former NFL wide receiver
