I. President O’Brien Comments

- Announced changes in university organization that will create three new faculty positions
- Also changes in support structure will be forthcoming.
- Formal announcement will be made in about 2 weeks, after affected personnel are contacted.

New Residence halls: shared preliminary rendering of location of new dorms and athletic complex. Improved residence and campus facilities contribute to enrollment growth and student retention.

II. Dr. Chapman’s Comments

On Teaching Excellence Center, in response to faculty questions about it:

- Need arises from changing student expectations of their professors: transformation from “sage on the stage” to technically savvy faculty. It is a voluntary resource for professional growth as teachers.
- Will use of the teaching center be reflected in any way in tenure and promotion and merit? Indirectly, it will be, if a faculty member is showing signs of needing it. It is not assumed that everyone will need it. It is assumed that all faculty will want to make use of the center at some point.
- Survey of new techniques developed through the center will be given to the students affected, and will be used to evaluate the effectiveness of the center.

With the Provost’s answers to these questions, the issue of the Center of Teaching Excellence is closed.

On Promotion and Tenure:

- Distributed a new draft of proposed policy, based on the format stipulated by the system. The draft is to be reviewed by faculty and comments channeled through the sentate president to the provost.
· New policy on Annual Activity Report nearly completed. Post-tenure review and graduate faculty status are next policies to be reviewed.

On enrollment caps for online classes: committee to be headed by Wade Shaffer will address the policy.

Sedona training: the software is a better, more efficient to gather publication/scholarly activity data. 2007 APS/AAR will be collected by Sedona but will be evaluated based on current procedures and the form currently in use. New standards and new form for annual performance evaluation will not apply until 2008.

CEIQ committee report from Mallard: reported on meeting with President, where he articulated in broad terms what should be included. Issues include such areas: Instructor preparation, course challenging, instructor care about me as person. Committee will research other pre-existent forms and select a form for WT.

Harry Hueston urged senators to continue to gather feedback from faculty. This is a period of tremendous and rapid change. Faculty need to engage in the dialogue and rise to meet the challenges.

Regents Professor award: Hueston to form a committee to identify Regents Professors. Criteria and eligibility guidelines are coming from the system. Anwar, Rosa, Pulliam, Hansen.

Motion: to approve Minutes from October 5, 2007. Moved by Mallard, second by Pulliam, passed.

Hueston will prepare comments submitted on the tenure issues and get them to faculty senate members by Monday. President O’Brien wants a select committee of himself, Provost, Senate President and 2 other faculty members to finalize standards and have them in place by January.

At our next meeting: Gary Kelley and Cindy Barnes will address student retention. Senators are encouraged to bring ideas to table. Libby Rhoades raised concerns about the function of search committees: for staff, faculty, and department head.

Announcements: next two senate meetings will held in the Board of Regents room, 317 Old Main.

Meeting adjourned at 1:25 PM.

Respectfully submitted:

Robert Hansen, secretary
