The WTAMU McNair Scholars program is accepting student applications for the 2012 McNair Scholars Summer Research Program. The McNair program is designed to prepare participants for doctoral studies through involvement in summer research and other scholarly activities. One of the primary goals of the McNair Scholars program is to increase graduate degree attainment of students from underrepresented groups.

CRITERIA TO APPLY: A student will need to meet program income guidelines and be a first generation student; or be a member of a group underrepresented in graduate school. (African-American, Hispanic, or Native American). They should be junior or senior status who will not be graduating prior to May, 2013. They should have a minimum GPA of 2.75 and are seriously considering graduate studies.

APPLICATIONS: The program will select eleven students to engage in summer research under the guidance of a faculty mentor. Students may pick up an application at the McNair Scholars office in room #159, KRC or apply on line via the university program web site at http://www.wtamu.edu/academics/mcnair-scholars-how-to-apply.aspx. Applicants are still required to submit paper copies of transcripts and financial documents to the McNair Office even though they apply on line.

Applications will be accepted through March 19th.

Please call Victoria Salas, Academic Coordinator, at 5295 or Mike Cook, Director, at 5294 if you have questions. You may also view the program web site at http://www.wtamu.edu/academics/mcnair-scholars.aspx for further information.
