Bush Fellows Program—This program is for students with more than 90-hours and at least a 3.0 GPA who are interested in public or international affairs, however it doesn’t matter what your major is. If accepted you will travel to Texas A & M to attend a Public Service Institute to inform you about graduate studies in public and international affairs and prepare you for the graduate school application process. All transportation, housing and meals are paid for. The application process includes completion of the application and a 300 word essay describing why you should be chosen as a Bush Fellow. The application deadline is October 12.
