

Timely Warning Notification: Stalking

November 26, 2024

CONTACT: Assistant Chief Kyle Hawbaker, University Police Department 806-651-2300

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act) is a federal law that requires colleges and universities across the United States to disclose information about crime on and around their campuses. A requirement of this law is timely notification to the campus community of certain crimes in a manner that will aid in the prevention of similar crimes.

STALKING

On November 25, 2024, the University was made aware of potential stalking incidents occurring in an on-campus residential location. The incidents occurred during the months of October and November.

Crime victim rights and options, and stalking information were provided to the victim. Title IX is aware of the reported incidents.

A few signs of an abusive relationship or stalking include:

- Assaultive abuse may be physical, emotional and/or verbal.
- Looks at you or acts in ways that scare you.
- Makes unwanted phone calls, texts, or social media posts.

How to help:

- Bystanders play a critical role in the prevention of sexual and relationship violence. Make the choice to intervene, speak up, or do something about it.
- Believe someone who discloses sexual assault, abusive behavior, or experience with stalking.
- Watch out for friends and fellow students or employees who look like they could be in trouble or need help. Ask if they are ok.
